

Autumn & Winter 2010 Newsletter

The colourful days of Autumn are almost upon us, heralding a new calendar of events in our community hall. It seems surprising but nearly a year has passed since we opened the doors to our modern eco-friendly community hall.

During the year we have already had nearly 4,000 visitors through the doors of the hall, which is absolutely fantastic, but we still have capacity for more hirings. Do you run a club, looking for a venue to meet regularly; do you need a low cost room for a small business meeting or product launch or would you be interested in hiring the hall to hold a coffee morning for your favourite charity?

Take a look at what we can offer you in your community hall – we have events organised for you to enjoy this winter and some new ideas, including a wine club and, coming soon, community HD cinema with current and favourite films.

Alan Stokes, Chairman.

Gosforth's Fete

Saturday 4th December at 7.30pm
Supper & Bar.

Publican Gosforth's running the village gala, but there's bad news from village stalwart Millie over the PA. Cubmaster Stewart Stokes discovers alcohol, there's a fine vicar of course, and Councillor Mrs Pearce gets seriously dishevelled. And that's before the rain!

Alan Ayckbourn at his best, this one act play starts as drama, develops into choreographed chaos, and climaxes as full-blown farce.

Who's in the cast – it could be you!

If you are interested in taking part in this, whether in the cast or behind the scenes, and can spare the time for rehearsals, get in touch with the producer for more details -

Judith Howe on 340185
